

WHAT IS THE INHERENT RIGHT TO SELF-GOVERNMENT?

Five Pillars of the Inherent Right to Self-government:

The People | The Land | Laws and Jurisdiction Governance | Resources

The people define the Inherent Right to Self-Government

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONTEXT

First Nation Jurisdiction
Section 35

I la alth

Health

Policies

Under Section 35, there is clearly jurisdictional space to develop laws and policies to have a true nation-nation relationship.

Example Health

Trigger

CONSULTATIONProcedural Right

NEGOTIATION

1

ACCOMMODATION
Substantive Right

RECONCILIATION

Crown Jurisdiction
Section 91 – Section 92

Health

Policies

The reconciliation contemplated is jurisdictional between Canada, the provinces, and First Nations.